During summer school we had a variety of different activities taking place. We had several subject specialist staff to lead the activities, particularly in Dance, Drama, Business and Music. All staff planned to provide activities that could help students build on their communication and teambuilding skills. Please specify examples of enrichment activities

For one of our enrichment's activities, we did a session on wellbeing. We asked the students to create visual aids for their classrooms. On their visual aid they needed to create a positive and motivational poster to help encourage other students and staff. Our students had the chance to share their visual aid and share what makes them feel positive and motivated during class and just in everyday life. Students produced incredible work and have started to put them up in their classrooms.
